For Residents of Piscataway & Neighboring Communities
WELCOME TO THE PISCATAWAY COMMUNITY EDUCATION WINTER SESSION!

From zumba, painting and pilates for adults, to Saturday morning chess, juggling, floor hockey and magic classes for children, Piscataway Community Education has something for everyone!

Peruse the many course offerings in our new brochure and expand your horizons by enrolling in one of our popular classes. Have fun with friends in dance classes, learn to paint or knit a scarf, and de-stress with tai chi.

Winter and spring trips include a visit to the Titanic Exhibit at Philadelphia’s Franklin Institute, and a day at the Bronx Zoo. We do all the planning – you just ride the bus!

So, during the chilly winter months, don’t hibernate – educate!

PISCATAWAY COMMUNITY EDUCATION
The Piscataway Township Community Education School is a self-supporting, non-profit program sponsored by the Piscataway Board of Education. The Community School provides occupational, basic educational, creative arts, recreational and special interest courses for residents of Piscataway and the surrounding communities.
